Apprentice of the Year – David Despot

In our world today, sometime it is difficult to find a good news story but the Gladstone Region has one this week. David Despot was named Apprentice of the Year for Housing and Construction at the State Awards in Brisbane on Saturday night. David is employed by Price construction who also took out Employer of the Year. David received his award for hard work, dedication and maturity. David will now go on to the Australian Awards which will be held on the Gold Coast on Saturday 12th November. David's mother works for the Gladstone Regional Council.
